

Ambassador Butenis inaugurates new location of the American Corner Sylhet

Ambassador Butenis cutting the ribbon of new location of the American Corner Sylhet

Ambassador Patricia A. Butenis and Sylhet City Mayor Mr. Badar Uddin Ahmed Kamran were the chief guests at the inauguration of the new location of American Corner Sylhet at Sylhet International University on February 15, 2007. Ambassador Butenis highlighted the role of American Corners in promoting information about America throughout the world. The American Corner in Sylhet was established in January, 2005 as the second American Corner in South Asia and now attracts 5000 visitors a year. The American Corner Sylhet is the second American Corner in Bangladesh patronized by 5000 visitors per year.

Ambassador Butenis cutting the ribbon of new location of American Corner Sylhet